MARY HAD A LITTLE JAM
NOW DOUBLE THE FUN WITH TWICE AS MANY SILLY RHYMES!

MINNEAPOLIS (October 11, 2016) – Mary Had a Little a Jam (softcover, $8.95, on-sale October 18, 2016), created by Bruce Lansky with illustrations by Stephen Carpenter, the best-selling “fractured nursery rhyme” book is now back and better than ever with twice as many poems!

This collection of silly, contemporary rhymes recount the latest adventures of Jack and Jill, Humpty Dumpty, Old King Cole, Old Mother Hubbard, Little Boy Blue, Little Bo-Beep, and other popular Mother Goose characters. Written by a gang of gifted poets including Bruce Lansky, Kenn Nesbitt, Linda Knaus, and Darren Sardelli, these rhymes are guaranteed to delight children of all ages.

With over 800,000 copies sold of the original edition, it’s the most popular book of funny, contemporary nursery rhymes in the English language. The new edition includes 40 kid-tested and hilarious poems from Peter, Peter, Pizza Eater that’s sure to keep kids laughing long after the last poems are read.

“An instant classic. Move over Mother Goose!”
—Peggy Gisler, “Dear Teacher” syndicated columnist

“Long overdue! A kinder, gentler Mother Goose... and funny too!”
—Christine Clark, “Humpty Dumpty’s Magazine

About the Creator: Called “The King of Giggle Poetry” by his fans, Bruce Lansky is the author/editor of 20 humorous poetry books that have sold over 3.5 million copies and three children’s fiction series that have sold almost 1.5 million copies.
